SOCIAL MEDIA CAMPAIGN PLANNING GUIDE

PART 1: LIST YOUR OVERARCHING MARKETING GOALS

It's important for your team to understand the overarching goals and how they will influence your Social Media campaign goals.

PART 4: SETTING A TIMELINE

We recommend keeping to a shorter, specific time frame for campaigns. Think of these as sprints (1 - 2 weeks) in your marketing efforts — that can be executed quickly.

1 . Will your even be tied to a Social Media event or awareness month? Maybe around a specific time of the year or holiday? List any relevant dates here.

PART 6: DEPLOY AND MONITOR

As your campaign goes to market we also recommend delegating one person to monitor any responses during the campaign. This will allow your team to understand your target market, how they respond to certain types of content.

PART 7: EVALUATE YOUR CAMPAIGN

When the campaign is complete it's important to evaluate with your team. Here's questions for discussion and to guide your next campaign iteration.

1. Compare final campaign metrics to your benchmarks.
